Injured/Ill Students

If a student is unwell or injured, then they must present a parental note in their school planner to their PE teacher at the start of the lesson. They are also required to bring and wear their full PE kit in order to be given a non-playing, alternative role, such as a coach, official, assessor so that they are still fully involved in the lesson.

If the student does not bring a note or their PE kit, then they will receive sanctions, as detailed below.

Sanctions incorrect/missing PE Kit

It is imperative that students organise and bring the correct PE kit for all lessons. Dealing with those who have forgotten items or whole kit can be a timely process, which delays the start of lessons. It also sometimes means that students cannot fully take part in lessons, if we are not able to supply them with suitable kit. As each half-year group only has one double lesson a week, as a department, we do not want students missing their only weekly lessons due to kit issues. Therefore, we have revised the sanctions.

In the situation of a student having incorrect kit, lost items or not having their full kit; where possible, spare kit will be given to the student, however this is the subject to availability (if they bring in a written note in their school planner from a parent, this will excuse them from the levelled concerns below).

Level 1 Concern (Yellow)

This is a minor concern with a student forgetting an item of kit or has incorrect item without a parental note. Students are given a behaviour point and a 10-minute break detention. Where possible, the student is given the item from the PE department's spare kit supplies.

The PE teacher will record the details onto the SIMS behaviour point system.

Level 2 Concern (Orange)

If a student forgets two items for one lesson, then they are given a behaviour point and a 20-minute lunch detention. In addition, if it is a second time of forgetting a particular item of kit (e.g. trainers), then it also escalates to a Level 2 Concern. Again, where possible, the student is given the item(s) from the PE department's spare kit supplies.

If a student does not attend a detention given for a Level 1 concern, then they then receive a 20-minute lunch detention and an additional behaviour point.

The PE teacher will record the details onto the SIMS behaviour point system.

Level 3 Concern (Red)

If a student forgets their full PE kit, they are given an after school detention and two behaviour points. Parents are notified via email/phone of the details of the detention at least 24 hours before. Where possible, the student is given the item from the PE department's spare kit supplies.

Additionally, if a student forgets the same item of kit three times or two items twice, it will be escalated to a Level 3 concern.

Failure to attend a Level 2, 20-minute lunch detention will also result in an after school detention and an additional behaviour point.

After school detentions are held primarily on Thursdays or alternatively a Wednesday, if it is the end of term or the college is shut to students.

The PE teacher will record the details onto the SIMS behaviour point system and onto the PE departmental after school detention spreadsheet. The PE teacher also emails/phones parents to inform them of the detention (at least 24 hours before).

Overview of Sanctions for PE kit

Level 1 Concern (Yellow)	Level 2 Concern (Orange)	Level 3 Concern (Red)
10-minute break time detention 1 behaviour point	20-minute lunch time detention 1 behaviour point	1 hour after school detention 2 behaviour points Email to parents
Forgetting one item of kit Examples: No water bottle Wearing of jewelry in lesson Incorrect kit (without a note) Injured/ill without a parental/school nurse note	Forgetting two items of kit Examples: 2nd offence of same yellow concern Failing to attend 10-minute detention	Forgetting full PE kit Examples: 3rd offence of same yellow concern 2nd Orange concern Failing to attend 20-minute detention

Continuing Concerns

- If a student receives Three Level Concerns in one academic year, referral to Head of Department will be made. The HOD contacts parents requesting a meeting and speaks to the student about alternative strategies. The student will then receive two after school detentions.
- If a student receives a further Level Three Concerns, the HOD will discuss further sanctions with the Vice Principal and inform parents.
